LEADERS IN COHOUSING AND POSITIVE AGING JOIN FORCES
- TO SOLVE OUR NATION’S “ELDER BOOM”

A diverse group of leaders in Co-Housing and Positive Aging are coming together at the Aging Better Together Conference to address proactive and sustainable solutions to our nation’s “elder boom”. The Cohousing model provides new opportunities for socially active and engaging communities that promote meaning and purpose in our later years. Come meet these change makers. Hear their stories and realize that, if they can do it, you can do it too.

Featured Presentations Include:

Charles Durrett - The Power of Community
Conference Chair, and founder of McCamant & Durrett Architecture. Mr. Durrett is leading a culture change in America. He is best known as the father of cohousing in the US, author of Senior Cohousing: A Community Approach to Independent Living. His work has been featured in Time Magazine, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, Architecture and a wide variety of other publications.

Richard Leider - The Power of Purpose
Richard is the founder of Inventure - The Power Company and chief curator of AARP’s Life Reimagined. He is ranked by Forbes as one of the “Top 5” most respected executive coaches and widely viewed as a visionary and thought leader on the “power of purpose.” His PBS special - THE POWER OF PURPOSE was released December 2015 in 347 cities.

Ron Pevny - The Power of Conscious Aging
Ron Pevny, M.A, founder of The Center for Conscious Eldering, serves people in or approaching their senior years who recognize that their contributions in the elder third of life are the result of conscious decisions and preparation. Ron and his colleagues at the Center for Conscious Eldering share a deep commitment to supporting the development of conscious elders in a world urgently in need of elder wisdom and gifts.

Janice Blanchard & Ann Zabaldo - The Elephant in the Room Series
